ANNOUNCEMENTS

Cheiron-Europe--Cheiron: The European Society for the History of the Behavioural and Social Sciences, founded in Amsterdam in 1982 (inspired by but independent from the American society of similar name), encourages membership from interested scholars in both the socialist and non-socialist countries in Europe. The Society conducts annual meetings each September: this year in Budapest, next year in Göteborg, and the following year in Jena. It also publishes annual volumes (c. 350 pp.) of proceedings, which are available from Dr. Sasha Bem, Psychologisch Instituut, Hooigracht 13, 2312 KM Leiden, The Netherlands. Membership is available from The Secretary, Dr. Michael Shortland, Rewley House, University of Oxford, Wellington Square, Oxford OX12JA, England.

LARG: the Library Anthropology Reference Group--The Library Anthropology Reference Group is currently preparing an international biographical dictionary of anthropologists born before 1920, which will contain information on approximately a thousand people. Each entry will include summary biographical data, a description of the biographee's contributions to anthropology, a list of his/her major publications, and a bibliography of published sources of further information. There will be entries not only for academics but also for travellers, colonial administrators, missionaries, and "native" informants. Anthropology is defined in its American sense to include ethnology, archeology, physical anthropology and many branches of linguistics. The dictionary is an outgrowth of LARG's just
